Ticketing system at Taj Mahal and other monuments

*452. PROF. M. SANKARALINGAM: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether any incident of reselling of tickets at Taj Mahal has come to the notice of Government;

(b) if so, the action taken against the personnels indulging in such acts;

(c) in what manner the ASI propose to streamline ticketing system at Taj and other important tourist places all over the country; and

(d) the details of the tiff between CISF and employees of ASI at Taj in December, 2002?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) to (d) A scuffle had taken place at the western gate of Taj Mahal between a monument attendant of Archaeological Survey of India and a constable of CISF on 17.12.2002 while checking the entry ticket. CISF constable alleged that monument attendant had pocketed two tickets for resale and when he denied the charge, he was roughed up by the constable.

Immediately a three member enquiry committee comprising senior officers of Department of Culture and Archaeological Survey of India was constituted. Based on the findings of the committee Archaeological Survey of India staff involved in the incident were suspended. The supervisory official posted at Taj Mahal has been transferred. CISF has also suspended the constable who manhandled the Archaeological Survey of India staff. As per the directions of the Secretary, Home Affairs, CISF duties have been confined to the security of the monument. For stream lining the ticketing system more windows have been opened with additional staff.
